Management Response and Action Plan (MRAP):

Evaluation of the Anti-Crime and Counter-Terrorism Capacity Building Programs, 2015-16 to 2021-22

Recommendations

Commitments

Actions

Responsibility Centre(s)

Completion Date

1. The Programs should darify their role, purpose and mandate, and revise their organizational structure in order to meet the anti-

Recommendations	Commitments	Actions		Responsibility Centre(s)	Completion Date
2. The Programs should improve use of existing specialized security expertise governance structures when coordinating and guiding programming strategic and	IC agrees with this recommendation.	2.1	ICC will increase coordination in anti-crime or counter-terrorist related capacity building between stakeholder departments through the prioritization of the DG-ISC. The Terms of Reference of the DG-ISC will be updated to support identification of short, medium and long-term Government of Canada priorities related to capacity building and whole-of-government approach.	ICC	April 2024
investment decisions in priorities.		2.2	ICC will systemize the role of the PRC to help select and develop those  This will involve bringing together key internal and external stakeholders and relevant subject matter experts to share their perspectives and knowledge to identify the best allocation of the	ICC with participants within PRCs	April 2025
			PRC will develop criteria aligned with strategic priorities that would facilitate canvassing multiple project proposals to support a selection process weighing Canadian national and security interests.

Recommendations

Commitments